

EUROASSEKURANZ Versicherungsmakler AG currently employs some 130 people at its offices in Regensburg, Munich and Frankfurt am Main. The internationally oriented company is closely networked with the global Hyperion Insurance Group through a strategic partnership. As an independent insurance broker, we help companies to identify and manage their risks and to design the insurance solution they need.

We would like to fill the following vacancy at our Regensburg office at the earliest opportunity:

Insurance and finance specialist (m/f/x) as customer manager (full- or part-time)

As a customer manager (m/f/x), you will be responsible for handling all processes in your area of responsibility in a cost-effective, customer-oriented way.

Your work will include:

- Cross-divisional responsibility for implementing and managing all operations and claims cases initiated by customers, customer advisors or insurers
- Providing high-quality services pledged to customers
- Risk assessment and transfer
- Undertaking negotiations with insurers, with expert assistance if necessary
- Ongoing process optimisation
- Cooperating closely with experts, portfolio managers and team colleagues

What we offer you

- A team-oriented working environment at a successful company
- Flat hierarchies and short decision-making channels
- Personal mentor during induction phase
- Attractive performance-based salary
- Wide range of training and development options

Successful candidates will have:

- Professional experience as an insurance and finance specialist (m/w/d) or similar qualification
- Further training as an insurance expert or insurance administrator an advantage
- Ideally, several years of on-the-job experience at an insurance broker or insurer in the field of commercial/industrial insurance
- Strong customer focus and communication skills
- Social skills and ability to work as part of a team
- Very good IT skills
- Good command of written and spoken English
