

EUROASSEKURANZ Versicherungsmakler AG currently employs some 130 people at its offices in Regensburg, Munich and Frankfurt am Main. The internationally oriented company is closely networked with the global Hyperion Insurance Group through a strategic partnership. As an independent insurance broker, we help companies to identify and manage their risks and to design the insurance solution they need.

We would like to fill the following vacancy at our Regensburg office at the earliest opportunity:

Customer Advisor (m/f/x) for the back office in our Mobility department.

Your work will include:

- Managing customer relations and advising customers in operations and/or claims
- Responsibility for maintaining customer contacts rigorously and professionally
- Determining customer-specific needs
- Proactive risk management
- Conducting negotiations
- Involvement in activities for ongoing optimisation of business processes

Successful candidates will have:

- Professional experience as an insurance and finance specialist (m/w/d) or similar qualification
- Further training as an insurance expert (m/w/d) an advantage
- On-the-job experience at an insurance company or insurance broker
- Strong customer focus and communication skills
- Motivation and flexibility
- Social skills and ability to work as part of a team
- Good IT skills, particularly in MS Office applications

What we offer you

- A team-oriented working environment at a successful company
- Flat hierarchies and short decision-making channels
- Personal mentor during induction phase
- Attractive performance-based salary
- Wide range of training and development options
