

EUROASSEKURANZ Versicherungsmakler AG currently employs some 130 people at its offices in Regensburg, Munich and Frankfurt am Main. The internationally oriented company is closely networked with the global Howden Broking Group through a strategic partnership. As an independent insurance broker, EUROASSEKURANZ helps companies to identify and manage their risks and to design the insurance solution they need.

We would like to add the following person to our sales team at the earliest opportunity:

Sales Manager (m/f/x) for our Mobility department.

Your work will include:

- Developing acquisition strategies together with the head of Sales Mobility
- Setting up a sales pipeline for systematic acquisition
- Responsibility for conducting sales campaigns, first calls and initial consultations
- Managing offer preparation with input from experts and specialist departments
- Determining customer-specific needs and the requirements arising from this; organising the necessary processes and procedures to be carried out by the relevant customer team

Successful candidates will have:

- A degree relating to Business Administration or professional experience as an insurance and finance specialist
- Strong customer focus and communication skills
- Good social skills and the ability to work as part of a team
- Very good IT skills
- Good command of written and spoken English

What we offer you

- A team-oriented working environment at a successful company
- Flat hierarchies and short decision-making channels
- Personal mentor during induction phase
- Attractive performance-based salary
- Wide range of training and development options

For more information on what we have to offer as an employer, please visit our website at www.euroassekuranz.eu/werte-prinzipien-2/jobs/

Do you think we are a good match?

If so, please send us your application documentation in PDF form, indicating your salary expectations and the date on which you could start work. You can either e-mail these to bewerber@euroassekuranz.de or post them to EUROASSEKURANZ Versicherungsmakler AG, c/o Eva Maria Matausch, Dr.-Gessler-Str. 37, 93051 Regensburg, Germany.